

Phil Whitehead

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER MOLSON COORS, EMEA & APAC

Business Experience:

Prior to his current role, Mr. Whitehead served as Managing Director of Western Europe for Molson Coors Beverage Company for nearly a decade. Before holding that role, he served as the European Supply Chain Director, overseeing supply chain functions for a dozen European markets. With nearly two decades of experience within the business, Mr. Whitehead has played a critical role in the company's international business, overseeing the successful launch of Madri Excepcional, the growth of its above premium portfolio with brands like Staropramen, Pravha and Cobra and the business' expansion beyond beer with the acquisition of Aspell Cyder. Prior to Molson Coors, Mr. Whitehead also held roles with PwC, AAH Pharmaceuticals and Boots UK and served as the former Chair of the British Beer and Pub Association.

Education:

Mr. Whitehead earned a bachelor of arts degree in business and commerce from Nottingham Trent University.